

SUMMER
CAMPS

AT

PORTLAND
CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

Summer Camps at the Portland Conservatory of Music are designed to give children an in-depth, musical experience. Participation in these camps allow students to enhance their musical education while forming lasting friendships with fellow students. Each day is packed with activity. Most camps will conclude with a special week ending performance for family and friends. Summer Camps provide a solid framework to reinforce regular musical activities. They are also lots of fun!

We also offer a wide range of private lessons throughout the summer. Please call 775-3356 or visit www.portlandconservatory.net for more information.

UNITED WAY SUMMER CHAMPS

The Portland Conservatory of Music proudly participates in the United Way Summer Champs program. We are Summer Champs number 343. This program is available to all 4th, 5th, and 6th graders in the Portland Public School system.

WORLD PLAYGROUND SUMMER MUSIC CAMP

(ages 8 to 11)

August 17 - 21, 10:00 am to 3:30pm

Be a world traveler as we explore 10 different countries through their music! By the end of the week, your passport will be full as we learn about these countries' musical traditions, native instruments, and culture.

In addition, we will be building and decorating our own instruments to take home. These four-string cardboard models will be tunable, long lasting sturdy instruments. Students will be able to choose one of the following: folk guitar, rock guitar, mandolin, banjo, dulcimer, or ukulele.

Fees: Member: $320
Non-member: $340
Materials: $65

BASSOON CAMP

(ages 11 and up)

August 3 - 7, 10:00 am to 3:30pm

Have fun and play with other bassoonists in this 5-day camp! Study reedmaking techniques, play in ensembles, and get to know the bassoon literature with PCM faculty and active bassoonist Wren Saunders.

Fees: Member: $320 Non-member: $340
Optional daily private lessons: $100.00

Daily Activities Include:

- Reedmaking
- Ensembles
- Lunch (bring your own)
